John Bennett Personius

January 12th, 1977- March 19th, 2023

Beloved son, father, brother, and friend. A true outdoorsman, John found refuge in nature and the adventure that it offers. A devoted father of four, he shared this love with his children, encouraging and supporting the pursuit of their passions. A kind and generous man, a friend who sought to encourage the best in others.

“ Thoughts and prayers to your family during this difficult time. Though John was a cousin we were always states apart. I Have fond memories of John but only as a young boy. I didn't have the privilege of knowing him as a man. Just know you are being held up in prayer.
